Braucher.

We are having beautiful sunshine after the hard winds of last week, and hope that winter has bid us adieu for this time.

Contractor Samuel Husk is cutting timber for the Sweet Lilly Lumber Company.

We now have a small boy carrying the mails from Braucher to Mountain Lick Run every day. It makes it so much more convenient for the men in camp.

The W. S. Taylor Lumber Company has sold their mill and tract of timber to the Wickmelon Lumber Company of Maryland, we understand.

W. C. and J. V. Anderson made a flying trip to Durbin last Monday.

Simon Allen, of Dodridge county, arrived here last week to work for W. Wright.

W. C. and J. V. Anderson have gone to May to drive team for the May Lumber Company.

Millpoint.

Sunday school was organized at town and Snowden Kellison mayor.

Jot Buckley the bolona and macaroni mixer of the stallion camp is using leaks alt gether since the wreck on the railroad.

Mr. Ruler, chief paymaster of the W. L. Company passed through our town on his way from a fishing trip on the river. He was wet to the skin and looked like a wharf rat. Well, I guess I will ring off but will come again after pumpkin harvest.

Braucher.

S. L. Brown has taken his sister-in-law, Miss Fannie Kelley to Washington to the Hospital where she is expecting to go through a very serious operation. We wish her success.

Mr. Burner who received a bad cut from the saw is better at this writing.

Mrs. Brown Burner is very sick. Dr. Hull, of Durbin is attending her.
